

Shirantha Beddage is a nationally recognized baritone saxophonist, composer and educator. He is currently the Director of Theory and Harmony in the Music department of Humber College (Toronto, Canada), where he teaches courses in Contemporary Music Theory and Improvisation. He was previously Director of Jazz Studies at Columbus State University in Columbus, Georgia (USA). In 2007, he earned one of the first Doctoral degrees in Jazz Studies from the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York. He has also obtained a Master of Music degree in Jazz Studies from William Paterson University (NJ, USA) and a Bachelor of Music degree from Humber College.

He has performed and recorded with numerous jazz groups in the United States and Canada, and is a sought-after clinician at regional and national festivals including Musicfest Canada, where he serves as Vice-Chairman of Instrumental Jazz. Shirantha's solo album, Roots and Branches, featuring his original compositions, is distributed internationally through Jazz Excursion Records and iTunes. For more information, please visit www.shiranthabeddage.com.